THE OPEN POLAR SEA.

ARCTIC adventure, notwithstanding its grim monotony, seems to be the only kind of travel of which neither adventurers nor readers weary. The same men who have already dared the "pack" and the iceberg, the sunless dark and cruel cold, are always fascinated by the scene of their perils and sufferings, and return to it, if possible, once and again. Perhaps it is that there is an attraction for resolute spirits in solitudes which only a few—and that so many expeditions should have been undertaken, not only voluntarily, but enthusiastically: to so desolate and arid a ing, pale green mountains, with their heads above the mast, to strike against which is instant destruction. The store of provisions, too, which are of an unusual kind, is immense, since no one knows whether the voyage will last for one year, or for two or three; nay, whether those uprisen waves, made rigid ere their anger can be spent, as knights of old by magician's evil spell, may not forbid escape and keep them Winter's prisoners for life. It is essential, during that long depressing night which knows no dawn, that no creature-comfort shall at least be wanting, and therefore the top concealed these giant fogs, but at last it lifted, and berg after berg burst into view, "like castles in a fairy tale."

The sudden change to sunlight, and what it showed, was something marvelous. "The bergs had wholly lost their chilly aspect, and glittering in the blaze of the brilliant heavens, seemed, in the distance, like masses of burnished metal or solid flame. Nearer at hand, they were huge blocks of Parian marble, inlaid with mammoth veins of pearl and opal; one in particular, exhibited the perfection of the grand, tumbled form, was not unlike that of the Colossus."

ped from its terrible foe—"still rocking as if rolling like a thing of life," and emitting great cascades from its split sides into the booming sea—with life, though without a mainboom. For five hours this Titan tumbled and crashing continued, and then from the mass "a piece about a mile long, and a hundred feet high, came off, with a report which could not have been exceeded by a thousand pieces of artillery simultaneously discharged," which concluded the display (as it well might), except that

My traces are so measured that the shoulders of the dogs are at twenty feet from the forward part of the runners. The team is guided solely by the whip and voice. The strongest dogs are placed on the outside, and the whole team is swayed to right and left according to the whip falls on the snow to the one side or the other, or as it touches the leading dogs it is sure to do if they do not obey the gentle hint with sufficient alac-

Physical trouble was frozen limbs, here for which was to place the limb in cold water, the temperature of which slowly increased from hour to hour until flesh was thawed out; but it was necessary to be a green tick to get frozen, the disaster was generally kept confined; just as at home, boys say nothing having had "a spill" out hunting. Seriously enough, the cold—so used they call it at last—caused them less inconvenience than one or two unexampled and inexplicable thaws. In November, the People Star the temperature once

These were left far behind, for our way was bound for a more extreme point of the foot of man had ever yet visited. Outside of the hummocks, among which had to camp for many a night, and though all his men, one by one, succumbed to the incredible cold and frightful hardships, Dr. Hayes determined to push on. PELOUBET ORGANS

AND MELODEONS,

Unanimously awarded the First Prize,
A Gold Medal,

"As the Best Cabinet Organs,"

American Institute, New York, Oct. 1885.

Being pronounced superior in quality, Power, and variety of tone, and in number of combinations.

As the best instruments of America were there contending, whichever won the battle would have nothing left to conquer.—American Art
Journal, (edited by a well-known musical critic).

They have also taken the first premium when ever exhibited this season.

Pedal Organs, one two and three banks of keys—six sizes—$250 to $1,000. Without pedals, single and double bank, in great variety, $50 to $400. These Organs, with their smooth pipelike quality of tone, beautiful solo stops, strength of chorus, unequalled pedals, and general organ-like effects, are superior for Churches, Halls, Palaces, and Schools. They are put up in cases of solid Walnut, fancy veneered (new and unique styles), and elegant Rosewood, of splendid designs and finish, and of the best workmanship,—in being intended that each instrument shall be a model of its class. All instruments, down to a fine octavo portable Melodeon, have the beautiful Tremolante stop, without extra charge.

The Cost of Radical Rule in Minnesota—The Facts and Figures.

The last year of Democratic rule in Minnesota was 1859. The total expenses of the State Government for that year were $81,051 80. The expenses of the previous year had been larger, for the Territorial debt was to be paid, and the expenses of the Convention that framed the Constitution, and all the extra cost of organizing the State Government, and putting it in operation, added upon that year. The year 1859 is the true criterion by which to estimate the annual cost of Democratic rule in Minnesota. It was $81,052 35.

With the year 1860, the State passed into the hands of the Republican party. Then commenced the period of prodigality and extravagance that is only equalled by the history of the same times in other States that rejected the administration of an honest and economical party, and placed the Republican party in its place.

The annual expenses of the State government since 1860—the year that the Republican party acceded to power, are shown by the following table:

1860.....	$138,846 84
1861.....	115,813 05
1862.....	145,156 32
1863.....	576,589 32
1864.....	402,952 15
1865.....	410,526 24
1866.....	474,555 80

This table is compiled from the reports of W. F. DuBar and Charles McIlraith, who have been the State Auditors during the period named. They are accurate and official, and no radical DIED.

Died in Carver October 9th 1867 at the residence of her son L. H. Griffin Mrs. Nancy Huit Griffin at the advanced age of 89 years.

In the death of Mrs. Griffin we are forcibly reminded of the oft expression, "The young may die, the old must die." But really so far as man is concerned it makes but little difference at what age he may be required to pass to the Spirit World, if he has lived a life in accordance with the requirements of the Great Law Giver, for at whatever time he may be summoned, he is ready to answer "not my will but Thine be done."

Probably at the time of Mrs. Griffin's death she was the oldest person in this State. She was born in Newbury Massachusetts in the year 1778, shortly after the declaration of Independence. It will be recalled by those who are familiar with the history of the United States, that George Washington while President in the fall of 1789 made a tour through the eastern States as far as Portsmouth N. H.—that he was everywhere received and applauded by a grateful people as the Father of his Country. It was during his stay in Newbury while on this tour, that the scholars of the school, of which Mrs. Griffin was one, visited him. Washington took each by the hand, and all received his benediction. She related to the writer of this, a short time before her death the most minute circumstances in connection with Washington's visit to Newbury, his general appearance, and his remarks to the scholars, stating that the recollection of all was as vivid as though it was but yesterday. At the age of sixteen she removed with her father Stephen Huit and settled in Augusta in the then Province of Maine, on the beautiful banks of the Kennebec river. At twenty she married William Griffin with whom she lived a happy and pleasant matrimonial life of nearly fifty years, her husband having preceded her to the tomb in 1848. In the year 1859 she removed to this Territory with her son, when she procured a quarter section of Government land near St. Paul, in paying for the same she used a Land Warrant which had been issued to her by the Government long prior thereto, as the widow of her deceased husband who served the Government in the last war with England. Mrs. Griffin lived to see her third descendants to the fourth generation, quite a number of whom reside in this County. The families of the Griffin's Brays' Noyes' Bryants' Bardwells', Jacquichs' Toirys' and Sargents' were all in a greater or less degree, connected to her by the ties of consanguinity.

Mrs. Griffin was a woman of uncommon severity of mind and temper, through all her long life, probably she never had an enemy, no one could become acquainted with her but to respect, and love her, she was a Christian in the fullest sense of that term. She not only believed in Christianity but she lived and died a Christian, she had often, for years, spoke of approaching death, and always with the assurance of a glorious immortality. During her last sickness, which was somewhat protracted, she often spoke of the kind care and attention which she received from her friends. The funeral ceremonies were performed by Rev. Mr. Sheldon, at the house of her son, where an impressive discourse was preached appropriate to the occasion, and where a large number of relatives and friends met to pay their last respects to the departed. The grave opened to receive her mortal remains, and she sank into its bosom. "There sweet be her rest, till He bids her arise."

To hail him in triumph descending the skies."

GLORIOUS VICTORIES.

The latest footing of the vote in Pennsylvania gives Sharpswood 1500 majority. A gain of over 20 000 since last year.

Iowa, estimated republican majority from 18 to 20 000.

In Indiana the election was only for county officers and the Democrats carry the State by a small majority.

Ohio—The election of Gen. Hays is conceded by 2 000 majority. The republicans lose over 40 000 votes in this State. The general assembly stands as follows: 19 democrats and 18 republicans, with possibly a chance of one yet in favor of the republicans; House, 50 democrats and 49 republicans. Insuring a Democratic U. S. Senator in place of Ben Wade.

The Democracy in these States have done nobly, and victory deservedly rests with them.

Colored suffrage having been rejected in Ohio, it remains to be seen whether Congress will regard the State as in the Union or not, and entitled to representation. This being the only cause for not admitting Southern States to representation, applies now equally to Ohio.

The Election News at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The astonishment of the Republicans in Washington over the results of the elections have probably been no less than among their brethren in the country. Speculations regarding the causes of the defeat are rife, and also as to the probable effect it will have on the President. The President is reported to be greatly elated. But two distinct parties, namely the war Democrats and the Copperheads, are besetting him for his endorsement of one or the other at the next presidential contest. There appears to be the best authority for saying that the President will at once proceed to remodel his cabinet.

The Election News at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The astonishment of the Republicans in Washington over the results of the elections have probably been no less than among their brethren in the country. Speculations regarding the causes of the defeat are rife, and also as

SPEECHES OF

JUDGE FLANDRAU AND
GEN. GORMAN.

The largest and most enthusiastic gathering that ever assembled in Chaska, greeted Judge Flandrau and Gen. Gorman on Wednesday evening last. At an early hour the Court House Hall was filled to its utmost capacity. The citizens of Carver were there in great numbers, as also were the hardy yeomanry of Dahlgreen, Chanhassen and Laketown, who came miles to hear an able exposition of the great financial questions of both State and Nation.

Judge Flandrau's appearance upon the platform was the signal for thunders of applause, after quiet was restored the Judge briefly reviewed in an able manner the question of reconstruction, showing conclusively that were it not for the radical party, they should, and would, pay one third of the national taxes annually, lightening your burden so much, and further that if, according to radical theory, the negroes are qualified for suffrage, and the holding of official positions, they should be able to work out their own salvation, without the aid of a Freedmen's Bureau, at a cost to the people of the North of 62 Millions of dollars annually.

BOND QUESTION.

The Judge argued this important question fully and ably, showing up the iniquity of the measure, and the double dealing of Gov. Marshall. How the measure lay dead, secretly hidden from sight, and only brought to light by Gov. Marshall in his annual message to the last legislature, recommending the people of the State, to turn this 500,000 acres of land over to Bond holders, without any equivocation. Supposing, as Gov. Marshall, was the owner of one of the wild cat Banks of this State some few years ago, that he had an interest in the adoption and passage of this, his pet measure, even at the expense of the toiling labor of Minn. by direct taxation. The Judge was listened to with great interest, and often interrupted with great applause. The above is only an imperfect allusion to a few points of the able Speechman.

Genl. Gorman followed the Judge in a masterly speech, that fairly brought down the house. It was one of the ablest speeches of the campaign, sparkling all over with gems of eloquence; convincing in arguments it must tell strongly on the 5th of November. We will not do the distinguished speaker injustice by calling extracts, for we want our hearers to keep his argument imprinted upon their mind, knowing it must do much good. The meeting closed with three rousing cheers for the speakers and our next Senator Col. O. W. Griggs.

Legislative Candidate.

It will be seen from an announcement in our local column, that the name of Isaac I. Lewis of Watertown, is before the citizens of this county as an independent candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Lewis informs us, that he only consented to this step, after urgent and repeated requests of a very large number of the voters of the County. Mr. Lewis has always stood very high in the estimation of the citizens of this County, and has always been an unflinching Democrat, and if elected we have no doubt but what he will give entire satisfaction to his constituents.

For our part we cannot sanction bolting the regular nomination.

Facts for the People.—The difference in Cost Between Republican Rule.

The expenses of the Minnesota State Government in 1850—the last year of Democratic rule, were, in round numbers, $81,000.

The expenses of 1861, the first year of Republican rule, were, in round numbers, $138,000—nearly twice what Democratic rule cost.

In 1863 the expenses were $576,000—seven times what Democratic rule cost. In 1864, the expenses were $463,000—over five times what Democratic rule cost.

In 1865, the expenses were $410,000—over five times what Democratic rule cost.

In 1866, the expenses were $461,000, nearly six times what Democratic rule cost.

Tax Payers! Read these figures that illustrate radical corruption and extravagance, and then go to the polls and end the power of the radical party further to swindle and oppress you.—Pioneer.

Negro Suffrage.

People of Minnesota! The Radical State Central Committee have the assurance to thrust under your nose the 2nd time—after you have once repudiated it by 2500 majority—the odious doctrine of negro equality. Everywhere over the land it is being spewed out of the mouths of all moderate and sensible Republicans. The New York Republican Convention refused to engraft it on their new constitution. The Ohio Republicans have buried it under 50,000 ballots. The California Republicans have declared against even the inferior Chinaman sharing in the control of our government. It is played out. The Chicago Times, which a year ago advocated it, now repudiates it, and says that the "ignorant, brutal, and filthy" nature of the negro renders it certain that he ought not to vote.

General Sherman repudiates it as absurd. Mr. Lincoln, up to 1860, expressly repudiated it, for the reason of the incompetency of the negro, and the supremacy of the whole race. This generation of negroes are certainly unfit to wield governing power, whatever the next may be, and no Republican would advocate suffrage to barbarians a moment, if they thought they would vote the Democratic ticket which they ultimately will do for their own sectional and pecuniary interest. As a matter of principle then, let Republicans and Democrats protect the purity and sacredness of the elective franchise by refusing it to a race who will be mere tools in the hands of bad men and demagogues. Vote down the principle, and to make sure it is down during this generation, vote down the party that persists in bringing it up. We told you two years ago if you elected Marshall this "Mousetraps" would come again, and sure enough here it is, and Marshall is his champion. Now if you want to finish him, bury his champion with him.—Pioneer.

The Truth.

The Cincinnati Commercial, referring to the negro suffrage proposition in Ohio, speaks the truth after the following fashion:

Of the proposed amendment we will say that it was unwise in Congress to make it a political necessity for the friends of Congress to offer it, and support it at this juncture; and its conclusive defeat in Ohio must be accepted as absolute evidence that the extreme radical policy of converting the South into black States is not acceptable to an immense majority of the people of the North.

Trial of Jeff. Davis.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Express special from Richmond October 17, says the trial of Jefferson Davis will probably come off soon. There is to be an effort made to obtain a jury of white men.—The jury to try him now stand nine negroes and three whites.

—S. S. Cox telegraphs to Washington that neither Vallandigham nor Pendleton will get the United States Scholarship. He says that either Judge Thurman or Judge Ranney will surely get the place.

Vote the straight democratic ticket and urge your neighbor to do like you. Vote for the party, that goes for economy in the administration of the State.

An Item for the Tax Payers of Carver County.

STATE AUDITORS OFFICE.
ST. PAUL, Oct. 16, 1867.
PETER WEEGO, Auditor Carver Co.

DEAR SIR:—At a meeting of the State Board of Equalization, held this day the following resolution was adopted.

Resolved.—That the same increase of valuation (25 per cent. as heretofore notified) as placed by this Board upon the domestic animals of Carver County, be and hereby is, extended to all personal property of said county.

By order of the Board,
J. R. LUCAS, Sec.

Our present generous republican administration is not satisfied with our already heavy load of taxes, but add another coal of fire upon our shoulders by increasing the value of all off personal property 25 per cent. which correspondingly increases our rates of taxation so much. Yet, in the face of all this, they dare ask you to vote the present republican ticket. We ask you farmers and laborers, to calmly consider this question, to consider whether you can conscientiously cut your own throats by voting for men that have no more regard for your interest than this—who can in the face of your heavy load of taxes, enforce the above additional taxation of your property.

ENLARGED.—The Hastings Gazette comes to us enlarged to an eight column sheet, and printed on a new power press. The publishers, Messrs. Todd & Stephens are bound to have one of the largest, and neatest sheets printed in the State.

CLOSED UP.—Our energetic brick men have quit work for this season upon their yards. Messrs. Gregg & Griggs, burnt the last kiln last week, containing upwards of 200,000. Mr. Howe also burnt a large kiln. Both firms are still shipping down river, and probably at the close of navigation will have but a few on hand.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of greeting our young friend Linus Lee, who is home for a short time, owing to a lame hand.

BARGING.—Our numerous number of barges are unusually active at the present time, as each one of our wood dealers are anxious to diminish the size of the many wood piles that dot our town site before the close of navigation.

STUMPING.—Our distinguished (?) citizen B. Kilbois, is engaged in stumping the Southern part of the State, in the interest of the republican party. We look for strong democratic gains wherever he speaks, for we expect that his audiences will leave thoroughly disgusted with his harangues.

LAUGHABLE.—It is truly laughable to hear the republicans, in their attempt to wiggle out of their late disastrous defeats in Ohio, Pennsylvania, California and Indiana. For their benefit we would inform them that "Genl. Apathy" has been promoted to a Brev. Maj. General ship.

LITTLE CORPORAL.—For November contains its usual beautiful variety of original, pure and sparkling matter. All new subscribers for 1868 sent before the close of November, will receive the November and December numbers of 1867 free.

Great inducements are offered to those who raise clubs. Terms, one dollar a year. Sample copies sent post paid to all who apply before the close of the year, whether the usual ten cents are enclosed or not. The Little Corporal will make all the children better and happier. Address, Alfred L. Sewell.

DISAPPEAR.—We would like to see a stop put to so many unsuccessful fights that take place in our town. We think, that if they were fined to the full extent of the law, it would have a tendency to put a stop to their rascality. We hope to see it done.

Independent Candidate.

At the request of a large number of voters in this Legislative District, I announce myself as an independent candidate for the Legislature.

Watertown Oct. 20th, 1867.
ISAAC I. LEWIS.

POLITICAL MEETINGS.

Col L. L. Baxter, Joseph Weinman Esq. and J. A. Sargent Esq. will address their fellow citizens on the political issues of the day at Oberlies Corner, Wednesday evening Oct. 30th at 7 P. M. and at Young America Saturday evening Nov. 2, at 7 P. M.

NEW ADV.—Read the new Advertisement of C. C. Griswold to be found in another column. Also the notice of E. M. Menger.

POLL LIST.—A list of the registered voters of this town can be seen at the Judge of Probates office, in the Court House. Let every voter see that his name is on. See to it before election day.

SALE OF SCHOOL LANDS.—Those wishing to buy school land should bear in mind that the sale takes place at the Court House, in this town, on the 26th day of Oct. See adv. in another column.

SHIPMENT.—Henry Young shipped upwards of 700 bushels of Oats, and 1,500 bushels of Barley to St. Paul since harvest. Henry has an eye to business.

We are informed that Ignatius Donnelly orated to a large assemblage of ladies at Carver on Saturday night last.

The Valley Road has been extended to Henderson. The Otter runs between Mankato and Henderson, and connects with the trains.

STILL AT THE HELM.—The popular conductors on the Valley Road, Messrs. Messer and Williams are still at the "posts" in charge of the trains. They make their regular trips, on time, no matter how heavily loaded they may be, and the verdict of the public is just, when they say no road has a more gentlemanly set of Conductors.

YOUNG AMERICA.—This lively little publication not only holds its own, but grows better and better all the time. It is full of stories, pictures, toys, puzzles, and good things of every description; and is deservedly a favorite with the juveniles, from the "big brother" to the baby. "Auntie" or "Grandpa" could not do better than send a year's subscription to "Young America," as a "Holiday Gift." Price, $1.50 per annum, with a premium. Address, W. J. Demorest 473 Broadway, New York.

Carver Items.

Our Special Correspondent, B. K. N.

At Carver, on Friday morning, Oct. 18th, a daughter to George and Louisa Hoern.

SHIPPED.—E. Holmes shipped by the "Chippewa Falls" last week 2,200 sacks of wheat. As much more will be shipped the coming week. We believe it goes to the Chicago market.

A TRIP TO GLENCOE.—On Saturday last we took a trip to Glencoe, that flourishing little town 21 miles distant from here. Passing through Young America we met our friends Ackerman Bros., Jas. Slemons and others. Business seemed good, and everything thereabouts looked prosperous. We noticed a number of good buildings in course erection.

In Glencoe things looked decidedly bright. Business was tip top and the place improving greatly. We were well cared for in the hands of John R. Landon, P. W. Savage, and Col. Edson, all live, and go ahead fellows. We hope soon to take another trip that way.

PERSONAL.—F. Belfry of the "Cateract" made our town a flying visit on Monday last. He was attending court. W. D. Stanton of the Hardware house John Curtis & Co., St. Paul, was here on Tuesday.

John R. Landon and G. K. Gilbert of Glencoe passed through town on their way home last week.

HUGE FISH.—A "Sturgeon" weighing 41 lbs., was caught in the river on last Tuesday morning, no hook, was used either. For particulars enquire of Fred Cook at the Carver House.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A week ago Tuesday was the day appointed for the Hon. Mr. Hanson & Jones to speak to our republican friends, but we failed to see either audience or speakers, it was just as well however that they (the speakers) were not on hand, as a respectable republican crowd, in numbers, cannot be raised here.

INSURANCE.—O. Curtis Genl. State agent for the "Phoenix" was in town last week for the purpose of assessing Frank Griswold's loss, but burnt a short time since says loss we understand is about $2,500.

WANTED.—Whereas this book has ranged from 15c to 75c. Large quantities of it is coming in daily.

CLIPPINGS AND DRIPPINGS.

Personal and Literary.

"Fighting Joe" Hooker is in Switzerland.

ANNA DICKINSON'S new lecture is entitled "Idiotism and Woman."

Roscoe disdains hotels, and occupies a private residence in New York.

A New York letter says the Galaxy magazine in the last two years has lost $20,000.

C. T. STEWART has a private telegraph connecting his up-town with his down-town house.

LATE Paris advices notice Gen. McClain in town, and Gen. Joe Hooker at the Hotel de la Paix.

SEVENTY-FIVE hundred volumes of Longfellow's "Dante" have already been sold, and the demand is increasing for it.

The largest number of jewels owned by any private individual in the United States is possessed by Madame de la Grange, the prima donna. They are valued at over $300,000.

CARLOTTA doesn't know that Maximilian is dead, and is improving in mental condition rapidly. If she becomes sane, she will learn of the Mexican empire's fall, of course she will be crazed again.

JARRETT, PALMER and WHEATLEY, managers of the ballet and Niblo's Garden, have said to have made $50,000 apiece by the "Black Crook," and expect to realize $100,000 before the play is withdrawn.

Mrs. TAYLOR, of Alabama, is to marry Augustus Evans, author of Life in the South. A daughter of Montgomery Blair is to marry a young engineer; and "they do say."

It is said that one-eighth of the iron and steel now being produced in the United States is from iron ore of Lake Superior.

Fractional currency to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars a day is returned to the United States Treasury Department, and an equal amount of new currency is issued in its stead.

The number of persons employed in France in the various processes of manufacturing is estimated at 3,400,000, of whom are women. The quantity produced last year was about 130,000 tons.

Vessels leave New York and Boston regularly for cargoes of the new objects of mechanical engineering, "grass sponge," formerly considered useless. The Bahama Islands and the coast of Mexico and Florida supply the market. It is prepared by machinery for mattresses, etc., at Birmingham, Conn.

The number of working men engaged in the building trades in England is estimated at 2,125 persons. Of these, 224,133 are carpenters and joiners, 117,483 masons, 80,361 bricklayers, 29,681 plasterers, 85,073 painters, 27,087 tinsmiths, 10,000 smiths, 213,695 laborers, while others belong to smaller trades.

In concluding a paper on cotton spinning machinery, read before the institution of mechanical engineers at Birmingham, England, Platt stated that the number of spindles now employed in the cotton manufacture in Great Britain is 2,000,000,000, and the production of yarn when in regular work is 400,000,000 miles of yarn of ten hours, which gives enough to wind four million spools, and at the altar gold medals were hung upon the little engine, and the names were found inscribed upon the obverse, while the reverse of each medal respectively called to mind Abraham offering up Isaac, Isaac blessing Jacob, and Jacob's ladder.

APPROX to the coming of Charles Dickens to this country, the Boston Post gives the following account of the distinguished author's personal appearance: "He does not recall the early portraits where he is shown with beautiful black eyes, splendid hair, and the complexion of healthy youth. He has not fallen off indeed as Lord Lytton has done. If you stand in Knebworth Hall, as I have done, and look at the portrait of Sir Edward Lytton Bulwer by Mr. Millais, you will find it difficult to believe that the elderly gentleman in an old-fashioned blue coat, with a stoop in his shoulders, high collar and stiff neckerchief, round his throat, and who puts his hand behind his ear when you speak to him—was the original of the portrait. Charles Dickens is not a contrast of that kind. He has escaped the ill health which has shattered the author of 'Peckham.' But his hair is iron-gray and scanty; his eyes are mustache and pointed beard, and his face has a red-brown tinge which sometimes reminds one of the complexion of Louis Napoleon."

Domestic Paragraphs.

Nine hundred and ninety millions of men use tobacco.

John Brougham calls the victims of strong drink, "Se-lonians."

A boy entered a hind with fat, was on exhibition in New Jersey, recently.

Peaches twelve inches in circumference were exhibited at a fair in Illinois.

A sermon in four words on the vanity of earthly possessions: "Shrouds have no pockets."

A recent number of the New Orleans Times printed four closely printed columns of obituaries.

Nearly all the ice used on the Pacific coast is brought from an ice cave in the northern part of Oregon.

The English language has 60,000 words in the dictionaries. Good talkers and writers use but 5,000 in all, and a foreigner can travel on 500.

An old choir in New York has occupied the same orchestra chair at the Black Crook performance for nearly one hundred nights, and still lives.

Two men threw nearly two hundred dollars worth of baggage to the "Black Crook" ballet dancers and were then arrested for not paying the florist.

A female pickpocket, exploited in the Second Union Church in the night of the 7th, robbing some thirteen ladies of amounts varying from $10 to $100.

Ralph Keeler, the young Californian who made the tour of Europe for $381 in greenbacks, submits his name to the lecture committees of the East and West.

A Boston beau "sees a lady home" from an entertainment by putting her in a horse car, bound to the suburbs, several miles distant, and then meanders home alone.

There was a great deal of human nature in the remark of a lady who, holding a glass of water in her hand, said, "Oh, if it were only wicked to drink this, how nice it would be!"

The fastest time in American railroad racing was that of a Directors train on the New York Central Railroad, the other day from Hamburg to Buffalo in ten minutes, or the rate of seventy-eight miles an hour.

The Jews constitute a large and influential element at San Francisco (furnishing fully one-third of the whole number of pupils in the schools), that school holidays and vacation days are governed by the Jewish religious observances.

Louisville is enjoying a wicked merriment over the tour of the "Black Crook" who went to see the "Black Crook" in that city last week, Thursday night, disguised by false whiskers, and who were arrested in the second tier of the audience chairs.

It has been observed that as civilization creeps westward, the "Black Crook" "buffalo grass" is reared correspondingly. Within the last few years it has disappeared entirely from Eastern Kansas and Nebraska. It is certainly accompanying on the part of the grass to give the "buffalo."

A German newspaper says: "Two years ago, Mr. Christian Segemeyer became father of his fifty-fifth child. His first wife gave birth to twenty-three, of which six were twins and eleven single-born children. Of those fifty-eight children, twenty-eight are living, all being daughters, and the man has a good health, and enjoys good health, as do his children.

—Julesburg, Colorado, is a nice place, judging from the following list of one day's events: The citizens had two street fights, hung a man, rode three men out of town on a rail, got a quarter of a mile, a match fight—had preaching by a circus rider who afterward ran a foot-race for applejack all around; and, as that was not enough, the judge, after losing his fees at poker, and whipping a fellow for saying he didn't understand the game, went out and helped to lynch his grandfather for horse stealing.

Industrial Items.

Pennsylvania can supply 200,000 tons of coal per annum for 500 years.

—Harwich, Mass., with a population of only 3,640, has 247 masters of vessels.

—A "College of Arts as applied to Industry," is to be established in Paris.

—The English and Swiss watchmakers are jealous of the new American watch manufacturers.

—The reputation of Lynn, Mass., for shoemaking is no new thing. In 1768 she made 80,000 pairs.

—The cotton business at Fair Haven, Conn., employs 1,500,000 capital, and gives work to 1,500,000 persons.

—It is said that one-eighth of the iron and steel now being produced in the United States is from iron ore of Lake Superior.

Fractional currency to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars a day is returned to the United States Treasury Department, and an equal amount of new currency is issued in its stead.

APPROX to the coming of Charles Dickens to this country, the Boston Post gives the following account of the distinguished author's personal appearance: "He does not recall the early portraits where he is shown with beautiful black eyes, splendid hair, and the complexion of healthy youth. He has not fallen off indeed as Lord Lytton has done. If you stand in Knebworth Hall, as I have done, and look at the portrait of Sir Edward Lytton Bulwer by Mr. Millais, you will find it difficult to believe that the elderly gentleman in an old-fashioned blue coat, with a stoop in his shoulders, high collar and stiff neckerchief, round his throat, and who puts his hand behind his ear when you speak to him—was the original of the portrait. Charles Dickens is not a contrast of that kind. He has escaped the ill health which has shattered the author of 'Peckham.' But his hair is iron-gray and scanty; his eyes are mustache and pointed beard, and his face has a red-brown tinge which sometimes reminds one of the complexion of Louis Napoleon."
